Cisco Hybrid Work solutions are focused on making hybrid work engaging with purpose-built technology and devices that break down collaboration barriers and adapt to everyone’s unique personality, workstyle and spaces.

“From a talent perspective, hybrid work has been a big win. Everyone enjoys the time savings of having no commute. Plus, you can hire talent anywhere. I’ve hired three people during the pandemic in North America, and they’re not located near the headquarters. In IT we hire talent anywhere regardless of the office location globally. This enables us to bring the best talent onboard and not compete with local markets where the same talent is in high demand.”³
