Policy Object Profile

The Policy Object feature profile enables you to attach policy configurations to a device.

The following table describes the options for configuring the policy profile.

Table 1:

Field	Description
Choose existing	Choose an existing profile from the Profiles table.
Create new	When you choose this option, the following fields appear: • Name: Enter a name for the profile. • Description: Enter a description of the profile. The description can contain any characters and spaces.